VISHAKHA AITE

25102/2005.

Page No.
Date :

Big five contaminants

1] Lead (Pb)
Most common heavy metal contaminant damages the brain and nervous system
- Leads to poisoning, kidney disease
- High blood pressure

2] chromium (Cr)
Common in contaminated soil and industrial waste, highly toxic
- lung cancer
- skin ulcers

3] Arsenic
found in contaminated water and mining/ recycling sites, long term exposure is very poisonous
- skin cancer
- bladder cancer

4] Cadbium (Cd)
Accumulates in the kidney and bones, released from batteries and industrial activities
- kidney dieseas
- lung damage

5] Mercury (Hg)

→ Builds up in fish and in food chain,
Affects the brain and nervous system
- mercury porsoning
- memory loss